Product data sheet

London's Great Exhibition is often associated with the biblical story of Babylon, a symbol of human enthusiasm for progress that led to the idea of building a mighty tower. The Hanging Gardens of Babylon at Semiramis are one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World. And so, the cotton upholstery fabric BABEL also depicts a hanging garden in the form a subtle jacquard with the help of a short-pile chenille yarn. With its particularly powdery colour palette, BABEL, is an elegant haven in the collection.
