Product data sheet

TEMPLIER is an elegant diamond link cut velvet design named for Raymond Templier, the famed Art Deco jewellery designer whose work had a focus on geometric style. Woven on a wire loom, a special technique is used to mix the metallic yarns during weaving to create the border detail around the cut velvet diamonds. The diamond patterning and gleam of TEMPLIER is stylishly reminiscent of the incredible jewellery of this period and it is offered in three pale gem-like colours.
