Product data sheet

Kashan is an expression meaning 'ancient cities' reminiscent of exploration. Hats and bags are playfully arranged on the printed fabric as a homage to the craftsmanship of South America, Uzbekistan, India, and Vietnam.

The design was hand-painted by an artist and digitally printed in Austria by our GOTS and Oeko-Tex-certified printmaker. The linen consists of long flax fibers sourced from the Vosges region in France. After printing, a gentle finishing process ensures a peachy soft touch. This fabric achieves a 20,000 Martindale.
